50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE LENINGRAD HIGHER ARMED FORCES OFFICERS SCHOOL IMENI S. M. KIROV

Today the Leningrad Higher Combined Arms Command Twice Red Banner School imeni S. M. Kirov is 50 years old. At its sources are the Oranienbaum Machinegun Course for Command Personnel and the Finnish Soviet infantry courses. The combat chronicle of the military educational institution which was established on the personal instructions of V. I. Lenin preserves the memory of the exploits of the machinegunner officer candidates and the first Red commanders at the approaches to Petrograd, of the heroic storming of the forts of Kronstadt, and of the legendary thousand-kilometer ski march of the internationalist officer candidates led by Toyvo Antikainen in the enemy's rear in Karelia in 1922. In its combat history of the terrible time of the Great Patriotic War are the heroic officer-candidate positions at Luga, at Yakhroma, and at the walls of blockaded Leningrad. The glory of the Kirov officer candidates thundered on all fronts. There are many Heroes of the Soviet Union and prominent military commanders among the school's graduates.

The glorious combat traditions of the Leningrad Kirov School are being continued by present generations of officer candidates and their teachers - commanders, political officers, and instructors. Year after year, the school sends to the troops young commanders with a higher physical-cultural and sports education.
